

Voices of Carolina Slave Children

Objective

Students will be able to infer the details of a slave's life based on primary sources.

Procedure

1. Students will choose and read five selections from Nancy Rhynes's book Voices of Carolina Slave Children.
2. Students will write a description of what life was like as a slave based on their readings.
3. Students will use the writing process, PQP (praise, question, polish), and the fifteen point rubric developed by the state department of education.

Evaluation

Descriptions will be graded.
